Life is journey,
For which; Nature has its own Laws.
Everything has a start, and as end,
Thus Journey of the life began.
A man who has taken birth,
Has to die one day.
Life is simple for those who enjoy it,
And difficult for those who neglect it.
Life is queer with its twist and turn,
As everyone of us sometimes learn.

JOURNEY

For some its quicker,
For some its slower.
Life is so curious, nothing stays same,
Everything changes but whom to blame!
Its just matter of time,
Which brings an absolute conclusion for everyone.
In the circle of life there are some hard choices,
Just recall your dreams; remember loving voices.
Life consists of two different way;

POSITIVE & NEGATIVE....

Its our decision to choose one out of two,
Which leads us to our destiny.
At the end; reward to claim,
It is a pay; for the path we choose.
Its upto us, whether we choose;
CURSE or BOON!
