

Yes! I Love You ..

Samapti Roy*

I love you with the whole of my life .
Yes ! I love you..
Do you really care about it ?
Do you really have the heart ?
Do you realize my feelings?
Yes .. you do..
Still this whole world is pushing us backward.
And we are becoming puppets in the hand of time .
Will this distance separate us?
Will we become unknown to each other?
Then please stop this time!
Bound this with shackles that can't be broken!
If you fail, bury me..
Conclude my story once and for all..
Even if my heart beats,
it'll beat for you only
and I'll love you ceaselessly...

When Hope Says, "I'm Here"

I've read it numerous times.
After a dark night rises a bright day.
When Winter comes , Spring follows.
The deep darkness is removed easily
by the glittering lights of fireflies.
From Destruction comes Creation.
And I've heard all these numerous times.
Now coming towards Love..
Love is full of sorrow, full of pain.
Love breaks heart and we've nothing to gain.
When all these thoughts disperse in my mind
and defeats me breaking my soul,
I try to end my story for everyone.

But suddenly some rays of Hope come,
and it says , "I'm Here"...

Love That Dwells In My Heart

Living amidst the present
we are bound with time .
We can see each other, feel each other
But this harsh moment keeps separating us..
The desires of heart still remain there.
O Love ! The magnificent one !
Don't go..
My soul has found you at last
and you've become the emperor of it..
O Love ! The enchanter !
Dwell in my soul .
Don't leave !
Promise you'll be in front of me.
Promise you'll be mine .
And I'm your's, forever...
