The Wall

Bidisha Pal

Guest lecturer in English,
Srikrishna College, Bagula
Nadia, West Bengal.

I love it.
A concrete guard
Standing erect.
I love it.
For it is on all fours
of the house.
It does not allow the strangers
Oh! call them families or neighbors
Or be it friends.
It harbors seclusion
It is an emotional constipation.
A perfect economic in relation
for it guards them too.
No talks are passed.
No laugh, no sorrow, not joy, nor pain
For they say these are all in vain.
It shares nothing but the truth
That it is ours as well as theirs.

For it's been and will be for years.
The Wall, how can I help it?
The Wall, and so I love it.
