FEARS....*Shivranjani Gandhi

University of Delhi

Delhi , India

She sat in a dimly lit room
Reflecting as the reflections of the dim light fell on the naked page
She could hardly concentrate on the pending work
As she thought of her awaiting fate
While her fears of what lies in her future seized her
She went into a never ending spiral of pain
Trying to free herself from the shackles

Would they ever leave me?
Do I want them to leave me?
Would that make me completely empty?
She contemplated to herself
Reflecting as the reflection of the dim light
Fell on the page

I'll let them go now, one by one
She told to herself
One fear after another
So that I'll be free for this moment
And for many other moments to come
She then sat there and let go of her fears
In the dimly lit room...
