

Life On-screen

Dr. Meera Vasani*

There lived a boy in the age where fantasy was the only fact, LIFE was only and only on-screen.

Boy reached a dungeon with hope of life and dream,
But he got back was darkness and hell. Darkness flow in mind, heart and body. He dragged himself on and on to reach a swampy area stinking filthy.
Sticky though and tempting but only to lure him from within.
Dark, dark and dark was everything.
To realise at the end, he has entered the world of no care.

He has left far behind the world of love care, warmth and feelings. And entered where kill, murder, dhadh-dhadh-dhadh, catch him catch him is the cry for prey. You can die and live again till You finish the three lives-granted.

Alas! Loose your mind time and energy

In the fantasy world of COD (call of duty)

Associate Dean (Student Affairs)

HSS- Department Coordinator

Assistant Professor (English)

Institute of Infrastructure, Technology, Research and Management (IITRAM)

(An Autonomous University, Established by Government of Gujarat)

Ahmedabad, Gujarat, India