How great you are!
Made us hybrid.
Snatched away originality with savage paw
Wished to reform everything that you saw.
We foolish people welcomed vulture
forgetting our own rich culture.
Is it your justice in this injustice way?
Let us release and keep that justice away.
You are white, white just in skin
Got no symbol of whiteness in thinking.
How you are regulating us through hegemony
And still now we get your indirect company.
O! West give up that intention
We want no more colonization.
