

I must acknowledge..... 11/9/15Sachin Gadekar

You made me grow day by day
Showed me glowing shining way
Still so close to beats though away
Uplifted myself lightening hopeful ray

Explored within me, believed in me all
Helped me in every rise and learn from fall
Stood in always protecting like a solid wall
Realized it's you who did problems solve

Listened not to you and blundered once
Regret I should not have taken a chance
Hanging around and burdening the fence
Apologize withhold never commit, hence.

Wanna get back to myself again somehow
One more time you take charge of me now
Must not yield at all, have to take a bow
Lead me to good and put back me on my toe.
