Fearless me

Ansulika Paul

Fearless to live in the body of a woman;
A woman, who is better known as a weaker sex.
Fearless to live alone;
Alone, in a patriarchal world.

Fearless to look as I like;
Where a fair skinned is more blessed.
Fearless to decide every minute of mine;
Where women are innocent fools.

Fearless to err and overcome;
Where mistakes become huge and forgiveness small.
Fearless to build my identity;
Where woman is everything only with a man.

Fearless to grow old incomplete;
But still be complete.
Fearless to make my way out;
Where I am educated but not enough though.

Fearless to speak out my beliefs;
Where I might be a minion, a mere creature to be.
Fearless me.
