

DEGENERATION

Nabajit Debnath

Maharaja Bir Bikram University

Agartala

Death can be more capable of exerting power than life.

Dark might be more powerful than light.

Hate could be more capacious than love.

Can curses be far greater than blessings?

Started from the flames to the millions of deaths!

Prejudices, tumults, depravities, manipulations and what not!

If He is merciful, generous then who the cruel is?

May the departed souls have a much better place

Where absolute peace, honor & love prevail.
