

Sonnet (True Love)

Shaista Yasmeen

I wish not to steal your smile,
I just want it should be mine, No matters how sad i am from inside,
The thing which is important is your smile.

I wish not to hurt you in future,
Can you teach me this act and become my tutor,
By doing this our relation will end with happy humour,
You don't worry this will happen sooner,

All the wishes are nothing but for my love,
To reach the heights of extreme feelings my love have to feel above, True love needs no situations no circumstances it know only one thing and that is love True love shine bright in every season so that the feeling become belove, Various twist and various curled sometimes paradise and sometimes hell, There all are stages of nothing but True love! True love! True love!
