Ode to Destination

O Destination, beautiful thou are!
Me lonely in wilderness,
Knowing beads of the string but believing not...
Can I see thy face ever?
Imagining thy smile virtually,
Have I lost really?
Nobody knows but says much...
Living in the desert of life,
Can I feel that oasis?
Whirlwinds of dust are such...
Storm with a diplomatic tone dances much,
Should I expect thee?
Unraveling that divine knot,
Life has become too hot...
Nobody comes, nobody goes,
Yet me waiting red red rose.
Foolishness would be these all,
Could I ignore that small?
Perhaps...no no never no,
Among the thorns of life
Wind has to strive..
Probably true this! I know
Yet looking the huge snow..
Can I step out to go?
Threshold of rigidity is old
How can I be too bold?
O Destination, beautiful thou are!
O Destination, beautiful thou are!
