

Womb

Blooming into the eternity of my being,
My heart, my soul and my womb sings.

Mother in me; you are wholeheartedly kind,
Full of life and amazingly pristine.

God's craftsmanship in me since birth,
Birthing life on the planet Earth.

Birthing I am dream and lives,
Birthing I am hope and vibes.

I am a mother; a mother blessed,
Loving life; a love selfless.

O mother!! O mother!! How much I love you!!
The womb of divinity jiggles in situ.

Mother you are a joy; a joy abound,
Your womb is the abode where God is found.
