

“Relation”

Mrs. Nanda S Makhija
Assistant Professor
Dr. D.Y.Patil ACS College
Pimpri, Pune

Sweet poison is a bad relation,
Full of selfishness and exploitation.
Initially, a person finds temptation,
Finally, he gets destruction.

Sweet flower is a good relation,
Full of perfume and inspiration.
Initially, a person finds information,
Finally, he gets possession.

Sweet song is a spiritual relation,
Full of music and reflection.
Initially, a person undergoes meditation,
Finally, he experiences jubilation.

Sweet is not a no-relation,
Full of pride and manipulation.
Initially, hatred is the foundation,
Finally, ends in revolution.

Sweet is always a human relation,
Full of affection and emotion.
Initially, no need of qualification,
Finally, the only need is application.

BIONOTE

Mrs Nanda S Makhija is currently working as an Assistant Professor in Dr. D. Y. Patil Arts, Commerce and Science College, Pimpri, Pune. She has good communicative skills and her areas of interest are literature, criticism, culture and drama. She teaches undergraduate and postgraduate students of various faculties.