PERSPECTIVE

TUHIN KANTI SAHA

Those buildings, standing tall,
shelters dreams, aspirations; hatred.
Protruding lights through the windows
manifestation of life.

These long silent roads
companion of sorrows,
facilitates motion from pause.
Lies with stories untold.

The lone rail track
dividing a part in two.
And the train; resembles happiness in life,
comes and goes, far.

These cars, in relentless pursuit,
are they carrying the people;
Or the people carries their burden?
Symbiosis of responsibility ?

These trees growing.
Pleasant unilateral contributors,
for no considerations paid.

Enormous silent spectator.

Here I am, sitting at my window,
my lens to see the world.
In a way of my own,
a different perspective.

Let this magnificent moment live,
for nothing lasts forever.
From the weathering rocks,
to the transforming weather.
From the hardness of rocks,
to supple earth.
From pouring heat,
to soothing monsoon.
Trees will again blossom
from the dead like woods.
'Metamorphosis of time',
the undeniable truth.
