

Do Not Let Me Be Me

Neenu Angelo

Asst. Professor,
Marian College of Arts and Science
Thiruvananthapuram, Kerala

Do not let me be me,
The mind is astray,
The heart wanders.
They might go through
The forbidden paths,
Where once it was green -
And wish to seek shelter.

Do not let me be me,
I am alone, and hate being so.
A little care could get me back,
An eye to eye can set miles straight,
And let me become
What you want me to be.

Do not let me be me,
A day of neglect can take me
Scores of years back of time,
And wish to never return at all,
I will seek comfort in my past dreams.

Do not let me be me,
Cause when you ignore me,
You ignore you.
You ignore what is your right.

Do not let me be me,
Cause what the soul desires,
Is not what it can get.

Do not let me be me,
Or else you will lose me one day.

Do not let me be me.

The Road to Sanity

With the skies parting,
And the world trembling,
Being nonchalant.
Hiding the blobs
Of molten lava,
That leaks the agony
Out to their world.

Harmony –
That single string.
Strum the chords
And show them
Nothing is by itself.

One thought at a time,
One step at a time.
The best companion –
You, you alone.